Captain's Update

Players commenced the Semi Finals of the Club Champs and Flights last Saturday. The course was soft underfoot, but the greens were in good nick and this made for some interesting matches.

Finalists have now been decided and they are as follows.

A Grade Final Ben Crawford v Gavin Levick

A Grade Flights Ian Kain v Sean Weir

B Grade Final Nathan Smith v Peter Crins

B Grade Flights Ross Quinton v Max Browning

C Grade Final Hugh Fitzgibbon v Shaun Smith

C Grade Flights Bruce McMurtrie v Kerry Smith

D Grade Final Phil Kouka v Paul Hurst

D Grade Flights Ken Summers v Wayne Clague

Finals of the Club Champs are the 9th of June.

Remember to enter the Taylor Timbers Waimea Open on the 2 - 3 June.

This Saturday the 26th is the Jock Trinder 27 Hole Foursomes.

Start time will be 9.00 am.

As always, Good Golfing - Sean Weir

GREENACRES MIXED VETS

It's that time again—the last Monday in the month is next week, the 28th. Weather permitting, please register by 10 am for a 10.30 am shotgun start. We look forward to seeing you all ☺☺

A 77-year-old man is having a drink in a bar. Suddenly a gorgeous girl enters and sits down a few seats away. The girl is so attractive that he just can't take his eyes off her.

After a short while, the girl notices him staring, and approaches him. Before the man has time to apologize, the girl looks him deep in the eyes and says to him in a sultry tone: "I'll do anything you'd like. Anything you can imagine in your wildest dreams, it doesn't matter how extreme or unusual it is, I'm game. I want $100, and there's another condition".

Completely stunned by the sudden turn of events, the man asks her what her other condition is.

"You have to tell me what you want me to do in just three words"

The man takes a moment to consider the offer from the beautiful woman. He then whips out his wallet and puts ten x $10 bills in her outstretched hand. He then looks her square in the eyes, and says slowly and clearly:

"Paint my house."
